Nice la Belle

Nice, the capital of the French Riviera, is blessed with an exceptional location. Situated on the Mediterranean coast, a few miles from the Italian border, Nice is a vibrant and colourful city with an incredibly rich history. It is famous for its museums and galleries, the Old Town, the Promenade des Anglais and its beautiful beaches. Here you will find the famous Cours Saleya, which is full of life, night and day, thanks to the markets, the flower stalls and the myriad of bars and restaurants that are open late into the night.

Nice boasts a Mediterranean climate over 300 days of sun every year. Winters are typically mild and summers hot. It is commonly agreed that Nice and the French Riviera have the best climate in France!

What people say about us

Thérèse ★★★★★

IH Nice is a very friendly, comfortable, and supportive environment in which to learn French. The test to assess my level at the start of the course was professional but non-threatening, and ensured I was placed in the correct class. There is a definite feeling that the staff are here to help you. The French classes are fun! They are very interactive and the students get plenty of opportunities to practice communicating in French – both listening and speaking. Every day we learnt new grammar and vocabulary and increased our confidence with the language. The staff are all very approachable and helpful. The teachers really take the time to explain things and answer questions – and they encourage us to ask any questions we may have, no matter how basic. They are all very nice and make the classes enjoyable.

Great school and staff. I did a 2 month stay there earlier this year and decided to sign up for a few more months when I moved to Nice this October. They will help with accommodation, but make sure you think about that choice carefully and research the locations. I decided to book my own for the longer stay. All ages will be fine here with adults making up the majority of students.
